COLLEGE RE-ENTRY SEMINAR FOR ADULTS
SET FOR THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 30

DAYTON, Ohio, November 16, 1978 --- "It's free, it's short, and it's helpful." That's how sponsors of the upcoming COLLEGE RE-ENTRY SEMINAR FOR ADULTS describe the program to be held at the University of Dayton on Thursday, November 30 at 7:00 p.m. UD's Metro Center for Adults is sponsoring the seminar and has done so several times before. Margie McAvoy of the Center and Dr. John Jansen, S.M. will lead the seminar discussion.

"There are a lot of doubts and anxieties which confront the adult contemplating a return to school," explains McAvoy. "The seminar addresses whatever concerns, large or small, the participants bring to the discussion."

The group session usually lasts only a couple of hours, but follow-up counseling is available to those who seek it. Some participants have never been to college, others have been away from college studies for several years.

There is no obligation to register for classes following the seminar, and it is free.

Reservations are requested. Call the Metro Center for Adults at the University of Dayton. The telephone number is 229-2251. The seminar will take place in room 309 of UD's Kennedy Memorial Union.
